... Council

IN OTHER action, councilmen last night:

• Approved an agreement with the State Division of Highways providing for the improvement of the east side of Hawthorne Boulevard in the area south of 190th Street.

• Appropriated $16,000 and approved an agreement with the State Division of Highways for the improvement of the Hawthorne-Lomita Boulevard intersection.

• Adopted, on first reading, an ordinance which prohibits parking in any alley in the city.

• Adopted, on first reading, an ordinance requiring catering truck operators to post a fee of $39 for each retail route in the city. The deposits are to be used to pay the city's cigarette tax of 2 cents per pack.

• Held for further study an ordinance requiring financial statements from organizations securing a permit to sell fireworks in the city. Mayor Albert Isen will appoint a committee to study the proposed ordinance.

• Granted the Torrance YWCA a long-term lease on its property at 2320 W. Carson St. The new lease extends to 1981 and provides the YWCA with an option to renew the lease for an additional ten years.

Record year-end earnings of $2.06 per share, an increase of 9.6 per cent, were reported this week by the Southern California Edison Co. The firm's operating revenues also increased by 5.1 per cent to $472,498,305. Earnings in 1964 were $1.88 per share, the company reported.

Contest for Rose Parade Theme Opens

Officials of the 1967 Tournament of Roses, to be held in Pasadena on Jan. 2, 1967, have begun their annual search for a theme.

Suggestions may be sent to the Tournament of Roses Association, 391 S. Orange Grove Blvd., Pasadena, Calif.

All suggestions should be written on a post card. The contest will close Feb. 28. The winner will be a guest of the Tournament of Roses for the 1967 festivities.
